LETTER FROM A SERVICE MAN:

March 12th, 1951--

Dear Reeces:--Am terribly sorry I haven't gotten around to thanking you sooner, for your BYLINES, which I am receiving regularly. It's really quite good of you to be sending them to all the fellows, as I am sure that they--like myself--appreciate getting the hometown news!

Nothing much new from this neck of the woods, except for all the problems they have been giving us! I have run my number of "jumps" up to twelve now, with not much trouble, so far. Hope I continue to be as lucky.

The news around here seems to be that we are scheduled for overseas sometime this fall, but nothing definite as yet. If we do go over, it will probably be Europe.

I'm going to college here, at night, through an extension course offered by the University near here. I am studying Journalism! So maybe you'll have a job for me on your paper when I get home????

Will close for now, thanking you again for your kindnesses, and wishing you the best of everything.

As ever,

BOB CARTY.

p.s.--Give my regards to Al Nelson, Frankie King, Lou Terry, and all the rest of my hometown friends. And please tell Al I'd sure give him a real game of golf now!

LETTER TO BOB CARTY:

Dear Bob: Thanks for the interesting and most welcome letter. We are delighted to hear from you, and so glad that you are getting along so well. As for studying Journalism--well, you can count on us for a job when you get home. A job, that is. The amount of pay for said job would have to be computed in good wishes and pats on the back--right now, anyway. So far, the BYLINE has been a non-profit organization, (or should we call it "undertaking")--and even YE EDITOR has yet to see any wages around here! But the pleasure we get out of hearing from you boys, and hearing your thanks for sending you the hometown news--more than compensates us for any lack of ready cash in the bank! We call it "OUR LITTLE BIT IN THE WAR EFFORT"--and since they won't take our blood, maybe they'll let us substitute our brains and brawn! (Not to mention our LIFEblood!) Incidentally, Eddie Baron is here on 30 days leave--Clyde Wakelee on seven days; we hear that Gagnier is leaving. As ever, YE EDITOR & Staff.

THE WONDERFUL PENNY--by Elizabeth Alice Theis:---CHAPTER III--

"Please; have you any buns from yesterday..?" his little head barely in line with the counter.

The buxom proprietress, her face ruddy from Yuletide stimulants, grinned good-naturedly. "Just a few. How many do you want?" Her eyes held a strange glitter, and she felt as if her feet had wings, though actually they shuffled along rather uncertainly.

The little customer fingered the pennies in his pocket; there were ten of them. One of them he had found that day in the gutter, an unheard of bit of luck. "Six buns would be five cents?" slightly pathetically.

"Yes. Six of the---I mean, yesterday--would be five cents." He paid her for the buns, his little hand grasping the paper bag with an eager clutch.

A couple of doors onward was a grocery store owned by a sharp-eyed foreigner. The odor of pickled herrings, strong cheese, and stale merchandise permeated everywhere. But to the lad it seemed like heaven, because wherever one gazed were articles of food. Tempting things hung from nails, and on the shelves were canned goods of all sorts.

"If you please?"--as a sharp-featured man suddenly appeared from behind an unkempt curtain--"I'd like a few pieces of sausage."

The man knew the boy well, as the latter often purchased meager articles there. "How is bizzness midt you?" in a cracked voice. "Sell many papers today?" The boy sighed. "Not too many. It's Christmas Eve. Nobody seems to care much about news."

"Yah. Too badt. But now midt food"--waving his hand suggestively. "Food they must have, no matter what day it iss!" The lad placed five pennies on the counter as the man deftly wrapped a few slices of sausage in a bit of newspaper. But as Bunny turned to go, the grocer's voice raised protestingly. "Dis penny? It iss not goodt. See? Someding wrong midt idt."

The little customer's face blanched a trifle. It was the penny he had found that day in the gutter; the penny which had made his heart leap and bound with the joy of unexpected luck.

However, he managed to make himself heard. "Something wrong, you say?" Slowly the package of sausage came forward as he spoke wearily; "Guess you'll have to take out a pennies' worth."

CONTINUED NEXT WEEK.

LOCAL MAN HONORED IN BROADMOOR:

Paul S. Schmidt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schmidt, Sr., of Brisbane, is the Chief of Police of Broadmoor, and held his first Policeman's Ball at the Columbo Hall in Colma last Saturday night, March 17th--ably assisted by the Broadmoor Police Commission. The Ball was held for the purpose of raising funds for the uniforms and equipment for the 24 volunteer reservists now all in regulation blue uniforms. There are three paid policemen besides Paul Schmidt on the force in Broadmoor, and the 24 reservists, who put on a spectacular drill during the course of the evening. A huge crowd attended the affair, among whom were representatives of the San Francisco, Daly City, Colma, and other Police Departments--and other executives from many Peninsula cities.

Brisbane also has a Reserve Police Force now--but many more volunteers are needed for this vital work at this time.

PTA GLEE CLUB MAKES PHONOGRAPH RECORD:

On Wednesday evening of this week the PTA sponsored Glee Club met at the Catholic Church in order to record "Lady of Fatima", and "Holy, Holy, Holy"--so that the entire town of Brisbane could hear their voices on Easter Morning at the Sunrise Services.

Following the recording, the thirty-four members of the glee club held an anniversary celebration at the school auditorium, to commemorate their first year as an organized group.

LOCAL YOUTH PUTS ON PUPPET SHOW:

"Scotty" Hickman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hickman of Brisbane, put on his entertaining puppet show at Lakeside Village on Sunday, March 18th, for the NADAA, under the sponsorship of Bunnie Carol's Studios. "Scotty" has a great future ahead of him as a puppet master, for his little puppets seem to come alive when Scotty pulls the strings!

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE REPORT:

The Brisbane Chamber of Commerce is now in its seventh year, and while we do not seem to be very active so far as meetings are concerned, President Dagler, Vice-president Barnes and myself, (Arthur E. Kennedy, Sec.-Mgr.), together with Mr. Brown and Mr. Reed, have been very busy in doing our best to get the Water District underway, and this should be accomplished following adjournment of the meeting on Mar. 16th.

Mr. Dagler and I attended several meetings of the Peninsula Conference of Civic Organizations, which was formed primarily to give detailed information in combating Communism. We attended the opening meeting of the Council of Chambers of Commerce and will attend the meeting tonight (Mar. 14). This organization will act as a clearing house for information for the good of San Mateo County.

Mr. Bybee attended several meetings on the Bayshore Freeway. The Chamber addressed a letter to Colonel Skeggs of the Highway Department regarding an overpass on the present Bayshore, with copies mailed to Senator Parkman, Assemblyman Dolwig, Mr. Purcell, County Board of Supervisors, State Automobile Association, chairman of the Tri-Counties Freeway Committee, and others. To date we have received a reply from the Automobile Assoc. which reads: "The arguments which you have advanced in behalf of a structure at this location are all valid and we shall be pleased to review the matter with the State Highway Officials to see what might be done to obtain this very desirable facility."

The Chamber is cooperating in the formation activities of the newest organization--The Brisbane Improvement Club, which has for its main purpose--to Beautify Brisbane. We ask that all Chamber members get behind this organization and give it the help it so badly needs.

It is time again for the annual Easter Egg Hunt which the Chamber has sponsored for the last five years. The hunt will be held in the same location as last year--on the Crocker Estate property just below Sierra Point Road on the way out to the Macco Plant. The time will be 2:00 p.m. on Easter Sunday, March 25th.

We are still a very active organization in name, and we will continue our activities. However, we need financial support to carry on. Notices for dues have been mailed, and a few have responded.

YOURS FOR A BIGGER AND BETTER BRISBANE.

--Arthur E. Kennedy, Sec.-Mgr.

OR----INCREASE THE AMOUNT OF SURVIVORS INSURANCE PAYMENTS TO YOUR FAMILY IN CASE OF YOUR DEATH.

All we ask is that Thelma remembers to leave the big winds in the windy city where they belong. We have enough of our own to worry about!

LOCAL RESIDENT DIES IN EASTERN CITY:

It was a shock for us here in Brisbane to learn of the death of our little Mr. Johnson, formerly of 100 San Bruno Avenue,---just two days after he arrived in St. Louis, Missouri, where he traveled to visit his sister. Mr. Johnson was ill for quite some time, having spent a good part of the last two years at the S.P. Hospital in San Francisco, but he was a well-known figure to all of us, who have known him for years. However, we are grateful that since he had to pass away at this time, he was with his family and loved ones--and not among strangers. We will miss him.

YOUNGSTER CELEBRATES THIRD BIRTHDAY:

On Friday, March 16th, Mrs. Gloria Mirza entertained a few of young son Mike's friends at the Fogleman home here. It was Mike's third birthday, and helping him to celebrate it were Stephen Jans, Bobby & Jimmy Vickery, Ricky & Larry Durham, Jimmy and Ruth Ann Songer, Marvy and Darlene Fogleman, Rand With, and Sandy Babkirk. Mike received many nice gifts and all the youngsters had a wonderful time.

SURVIVAL UNDER A-BOMB ATTACK-CHAPTER III:

When you fall flat to protect yourself from a bombing, don't look up to see what is coming. Even during the daylight hours, the flash from a bursting A-Bomb can cause several moments of blindness, if you're facing that way. To prevent it, bury your face in your arms and hold it there for 10 or 12 seconds after the explosion. That will also help to keep flying glass and other things out of your eyes.

SURPRISE PARTY FOR LOCAL GIRL:

On Friday evening, March 16th, a "Surprise Personal" was given in honor of Miss Joy Fogleman at her home at 482 Mendocino. The guests were Mesdames Jeanne Isley, Dona Staton, Darlene Yarbrough, Pat Riggett, Dolores Gomez, Pat Navarro, Geneva Johnson, Laura Wakelee, Helen Fassitt, Daisy With, Maxine With, Gloria Mirza, Betta Durham, Marian Vicker, Kathy Fogleman, Golda Fogleman, and Miss Olga Marin, Shirley Babkirk, Joan Hunsinger, Carol Hite, Marylon Allen, Judy Woodard, and Betty Fogleman.

Joy received many beautiful gifts. The evening was spent in playing games. Refreshments included ice cream and cake and a good time was enjoyed by all.

CUB SCOUTS SELLING TICKETS FOR DANCE:

Cub Scout Pack #134 are selling tickets for a dance again. The American Legion Post #473 sponsors this group of cubs. Every year, the American Legion here give a benefit dance for the local cub pack, and all proceeds of the ticket sales are turned over to the treasury of the cub pack in order to defray expenses for the running of the pack, which consists of 50 local boys. Please do not turn away these boys when they come to sell you a ticket, as your purchase is just a donation to help our boys.

The dance will be held at the Legion Hall on Saturday, April 7th, at 9 p.m. There will be door prizes and fun for all. We suggest that you buy a ticket, and use it---it will serve two purposes!
